

Resolution of the President of the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, calling for the granting of two scholarships for the International Foundation Program studies for the 2021-2022 academic year.

The aim of these scholarships is to facilitate access to the International Foundation Program for international students who have graduated from high school in a non-EU country, who do not live in Spain and who want to begin university studies through the International Foundation Program.

The International Foundation Program courses are designed for students who have completed their high school studies. While, acquiring the foundation knowledge, they will define their academic interests in order to start their ideal Bachelor Degree. To achieve this aim successfully, the program includes Foundation subjects with essential knowledges, promotes the study of the Spanish and English as a languages and gives the possibility to take 12 credits in first year Bachelor's Degree courses.

The UC3M International Foundation Program scholarships aim to financially support students with good academic performance, who may be in difficult financial situations or in special circumstances that could compromise their access to university studies.
