Objectives

This short course aims to improve the quality of your academic writing in English and the use of fluent, natural and accurate language. The principal aims are:

- Learn the complex and advanced grammatical structures and general aspects of academic language.
- Learn the specific features of academic vocabulary.
- Identify and analyse issues and most common errors to avoid and/or self-correct them in your writing.

Contents

- 1.- Elements of academic language.
- 2.- Describing figures and tables.
- 3.- Giving definitions.
- 4.- Paraphrasing and avoiding plagiarism.
- 5.- Citing and reporting sources.
- 6.- Paragraph structure
- 7.- Editing
- 8.- Resources for writing

The focus will be on the correct structure and use of English, practising those areas that are particularly difficult for native Spanish speakers, as well as looking at the most common issues for all English learners at this level.

The course aims to analyse common aspects of academic language across all disciplines, therefore for reasons of time, it won't be possible to look in detail at subject-specific language.

Methodology

- Language activities on the use of academic structures and typically difficult areas for learners at this level.
- Active participation is required in the language activities and writing assignments.
- Individual students' work will be analysed and edited.

Independent work offline is mandatory and is aimed at practising the aspects presented in class. (Estimated number of hours: 4)

Course evaluation

- Continuous evaluation based on attendance, participation and work done inside and outside class.
- You must attend 75% of the course for Pass grade.
- The final grade will be based on continuous assessment (50%) and practical assignments (50%).
- You will be given one writing task per week to be handed in each week.
- There will be a final longer writing assignment to be handed in no later than 7 days after the course ends.
