

INSTITUTO DE ESTUDIOS CLÁSICOS “LUCIO ANNEO SENECA”

DAILY LIFE AND NORMS IN ROME

A cycle of lectures coordinated by
CONSUELO CARRASCO GARCÍA

Does the political organization of a society determine its legal norms? Is the family a social institution regulated by law? What to believe in and why (religion in Rome)? Who worked and under which legal regime as lawyers, doctors, shoemakers, or farmers? Who had the political functions? How did the Romans enjoy their free time (gladiatorial fights, chariot races, theatre, and literature)? All these interesting questions about ancient Rome, the basis of Western culture, will be discussed by specialists from diverse disciplines (Law, Classical Philology, Papyrology...), from different Spanish and foreign universities. Anyone interested, from inside or outside the university, is welcome to attend.
