

Fixed Income Analyst Internship Program - Investment Banking

KNG is a privately owned partnership specialised in Global Fixed Income.

Established in 2003, we are market leaders in secondary trading of illiquid assets (Credit, Distressed, Structured Finance and Structured Notes) and in providing tailor-made solutions to both Investors and Issuers. KNG has an established European presence with offices in London, Lisbon and Madrid. Our activity extends to North America and Asia. Our business model draws on the investment banking expertise of our professionals which allows us to simplify complex situations and, subsequently, to provide the appropriate access to the financial markets for a given need.

Fixed Income Department

Operating at the centre of the European financial markets, our fixed income specialists serve institutional clients including Banks, Corporations, Insurance Companies, Asset Managers, Hedge Funds and Foundations. We seek to deliver to our investor and issuers deep market insight and efficient execution helping them to raise money, invest and transfer risk across different financial asset classes.

The Fixed Income Analyst Internship Program:

We are looking for high achievers, strongly motivated candidates with a steep learning curve.

We are looking for fast learners and hard workers who can demonstrate the following skills:

- Entrepreneurial spirit
- Excellence in both academic and extra-academic activities
- Deep interest in Investment Banking, economics, and finance in general
- Outstanding analytical and commercial skills
- Energy, attention to detail, commitment and enthusiasm
- Fluency in English plus one of the following: French, German or Spanish

Why you should apply to this program

You recently graduated from a university or business school, preferably with a focus on finance, and you want to join the Investment Banking world and succeed into it.

Our internships provide you with the opportunity to work on a variety of projects, and asset classes (Rates, Credit, Structured Notes, ABS). KNG is a Group with offices in London, Lisbon and Madrid.

As an intern, you will help us deliver value to our clients. You will work side by side with top tier investment banking professionals. As you gain experience, you will gain increased responsibilities, including hands-on work on live transactions and possibility to be part in conversations with clients. If objectives will be met you will be able to have one of the steepest learning curve a young graduate can expect.

In addition to being a valuable experience for your career, an internship is the best way for you and for us to test your motivation and mind-set for the unique Investment Banking world. Successful internships can open the door to full time job offers by us.

The position is based in London and Lisbon.
