Objectives

The aim of the seminars is to review the economic foundations of competition policies and to present an overview of the latest developments in competition economics, both from a theoretical perspective and from the analysis of recent case-law.

The seminar is divided in two blocks: The first four sessions provide an overview of the theoretical foundations of the economics of competition and antitrust with a special focus on its practical implementation.

The second block will be devoted to the analysis and discussion of recent competition cases by practitioners from competition authorities, law firms and economic consulting firms.

Dates, schedule and venue

The course is divided in two blocks: The first block will be held on Wednesday, February 6th, 13th, 20th and 27th. The second block will be on Wednesday March 6th, 13th and 20th. Classes will be held from 16:00 to 19:15 at the Campus Madrid-Puerta de Toledo, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Ronda de Toledo 1.

The sessions will be taught in English.
