

Dear Colleagues,

Today, the government decreed that we will be in official mourning for the next ten days. The flags on the University's campuses will be flying at half-mast from midnight tonight until 6th June. I invite everyone from the university community to participate in a minute of silence at midday tomorrow to remember the victims who have died because of this pandemic.

Kind regards,

Juan Romo
President

Dear Students,

Today, the government decreed that we will be in official mourning for the next ten days. The flags on the University's campuses will be flying at half-mast from midnight tonight until 6th June. I invite everyone from the university community to participate in a minute of silence at midday tomorrow to remember the victims who have died because of this pandemic.

Kind regards,

Juan Romo
President