

Abstract

These awards are for Master's degree students from the Carlos III University, who complete their Masters' Thesis (TFM) with an entrepreneurial profile in the academic year 2018/2019. Those proposals presented individually or jointly, developed from one or more TFM that constitute business ideas that stand out for their brilliance and viability, will be prize.

The Social Council of the Carlos III University awards an amount of 20,000 euros that will be distributed among a maximum of three prizes. Additionally, the winning teams will receive, for one year, specialized mentoring by the Support Service for Entrepreneurship and Innovation of the Carlos III University for the development of their entrepreneurial initiative.

The awards are intended exclusively to finance entrepreneurial activities or training for entrepreneurship.
