

Degree seeking

The University Carlos III of Madrid invites students who have earned their high school diploma outside Spain to discover its bachelor's degree offering and benefit from an early admission process.

Open from November to May and oriented to degree seeking students who have completed (or will complete) their High School studies in foreign education systems with a competitive GPA.

7 Degrees in English
—
12 Bilingual
Degrees

Requirements
Validated high school diploma.

Application
November
to May