Prerequisites

Prerequisites are lower level coursework that must be fulfilled before a student can enroll in a higher level course. Many upper division classes have “pre-requisite” requirements. Exchange students will need to demonstrate, via transcripts and course descriptions, that they have completed equivalent coursework that satisfies the SDSU pre-requisites. Master’s level courses are numbered between 600 and 799. These classes are not open to undergraduates. The General Catalog, Graduate Bulletin and Class Schedule all identify any prerequisites required for specific courses. Please check the notes in these documents carefully.

Selecting courses

Students should meet with faculty at their home institution to plan what courses to take while at SDSU to ensure that coursework completed here will transfer successfully on return. Undergraduates should refer to the General Catalog for a description of courses in their preferred field of study. Graduate students should refer to the Graduate Bulletin.

Both undergraduates and graduates should refer to the Class Schedule for schedule information.

Impacted majors

"Impacted" means that student demand for classes exceeds what can be accommodated. If you want to study Business Administration (Accounting, Finance, Information Decision Systems, Management, Marketing,) Communications, Journalism; Television, Film, and New Media, or any of the other impacted programs listed on the web page above, enrolling in upper division classes in your major at SDSU will be challenging. In light of this situation, exchange students may not enroll exclusively in classes in the impacted programs.

Registering for classes

Once accepted to SDSU, students must create a SDSU WebPortal account. Students enroll for their classes through WebPortal. A registration date and time will be posted in their account. To register for courses, students are given a priority registration time in April for the Fall semester and in November for the Spring semester and should register at the exact time and date assigned.

In most cases, students will be able to enroll in courses requiring pre-requisites through their WebPortal accounts. They will receive a message advising them to take transcripts and descriptions of coursework completed to class to show the instructor they have satisfied the pre-requisites.

TRAVEL TO SAN DIEGO AND SDSU

Arriving in San Diego: Students should fly into San Diego International Airport (abbreviated SAN, local name is Lindbergh Field).

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Exchange Students are required to arrive one day prior to the beginning of the International Student Orientation and attendance is MANDATORY. The orientation program provides information on housing, visa/immigration matters, health/safety, academics and registration, getting involved on campus, and campus tour.

TEMPORARY ACCOMMODATIONS

Resources can be found at Short-Term Housing/Hotels.

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING

Students may apply for on-campus housing once they have been admitted to SDSU and issued a “Red ID” (student number). On-campus housing is VERY limited. You may add your name to an Interest List, however looking for off-campus options is highly recommended.

For more information, go to the Office of Housing and Residence Education website.

None of the campus residences provide bedding or other linens (towels, etc.). Students should be prepared to provide their own, bring these items with them from home, or purchase them upon arrival.

Housing Administration has an official move-in date that is a few days after the Exchange Student Orientation Program. It is the students’ responsibility to submit an early arrival application to the Office of Housing Administration, for consideration of early arrival.

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING

Many students prefer to live in off-campus apartments or to rent a room in a private home. This is many times a more affordable option than living on-campus. More information about finding off-campus options will be sent to your email once admitted. You may start looking at off-campus resources here.

ESTIMATED PERSONAL EXPENSES

Students are responsible for room and board (lodging and food), and all other personal expenses such as: fees that may be associated with specific classes (e.g. computer, language, science lab fees, and equipment rental fees for sports classes), health insurance, books, local transportation, entertainment, etc. Personal expenses can vary greatly depending on housing, and personal spending habits. SDSU has estimated that students spend approximately US$ 9,650 for 1 semester (4.5 months). This includes costs for Food, Housing, Books/Supplies, Health Insurance and Personal Expenses.

Health Insurance

Exchange students are REQUIRED to purchase the Health Insurance policy offered through the International Student Center - JCB Insurance Solutions.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How many classes does a student take per term? Undergraduate exchange students typically take 4-5 classes per semester. Graduate exchange students typically take 3-4 classes. Most classes are 3 units (credits) in value. 1 credit/unit = 15 hours of classroom instruction.

Be advised that immigration regulations require that undergraduate students take a minimum of 12 units and that graduate students take a minimum of 9 units. Exchange students cannot take more than 17 units because the workload is too heavy and it would not allow students to participate in student life.

What is the ratio of ECTS units to SDSU units?

SDSU has determined that the ratio of ECTS (European Credit Transfer System) units to SDSU (semester) units is 2 to 1 (for example, 6 ECTS units = 3 SDSU units). However, conversion of units to credits is up to the discretion of exchange students' home institution.

How many hours per week does the typical student spend in the classroom?

Four classes of three units/credits will total 12 hours of class time, five classes of 3 units/credits total 15 hours of class per week.

How many weeks are there in a term?

15 weeks per semester (Fall or Spring), plus one week for final exams.
