

MASTER IN INDUSTRIAL ECONOMICS AND MARKETS

Since the academic year 2013/2014 the Master in Industrial Economics and Markets (MIEM) participates on the Erasmus Postgraduate Program of the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, which objective is to promote students internationalization at all levels of the UC3M, and for that reason, some Master programs are added to the current ERASMUS European mobility.

The MIEM, with a teaching load of 120 credits, offers to its students the possibility of performing international mobility in two modalities of exchange:

- European Mobility with recognition of ECTS credits of the Master (International academic stay to study subjects of the master).
- International complement, once finished the courses of the Master (International academic stay as Complementary Formation).

The call 2017/2018, whose deadline to submit applications will open the first two weeks of December 2016, offer 9 places to the students of this master.

Once the application has been submitted, priority in the award of the seats will be given taking into account:

1. The best average grade in the student's academic record
2. To have accredited the required language level
3. Balance between the INCOMING AND OUTGOING places in each master.

Once the students have been awarded a place, they will obtain funding for a maximum of 7 months.

The student will receive an amount financed jointly by the Erasmus + Program and the MECD (Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport), depending on the country of destination, maximum 300 € / month and minimum 200 € / month for a total of 7 months financed.

Students with a general scholarship of MECD 2016/17 will have an additional € 100 / month. In the case of the MIEM, they will also receive an additional aid, which will consist of a reduction of 50% in fees for those students who will carry out an international complement.

In the attached table are identified the 9 places offered by country of destination, duration and requirements.
