 Bilingual  English  Spanish  AACSB  ACCA

Universidad Carlos III de Madrid is one of Madrid's top international universities. It stands out more than any other Spanish university in terms of international focus (according to the ranking made by the Foundation of Knowledge and Development CyD), with the largest offering of degree programs taught in English in Spain. It offers the greatest number of degree programs that are bilingual (Finance and Accounting, Film, Television and Media Studies, Philosophy, Politics and Economics) or taught entirely in English (International Studies, Technology, and Business, Business Administration), with a total of 27 (67% degrees offered).

UC3M is the first public university in Spain to receive the AACSB international accreditation, a seal of distinction for excellence in business education.

20% of UC3M students are international students. It is listed in QS University Rankings Top 50 under 50 as one of the best universities under 50 years old across the world.
